Re: United States v. Donald McCalmont,
Criminal Docket No. 13-268 (JMF)

Dear Judge Furman:

Mr. McCalmont would like to travel to Plattsburgh NY on Sunday May 12 to pick up his car. The car is actually in Canada; a friend would drive it over the border and would meet him in Plattsburgh.

His itinerary would be as follows:

On Sunday May 12, he would travel by the LIRR from Massapequa to Penn Station NYC, then travel by train (Amtrak) from Penn Station, departing 8:15 a.m., arriving at Plattsburgh, NY, at 3:15 p.m. He would stay overnight at a motel in Plattsburgh, and then drive back on Monday, May 13, during the day, arriving in Massapequa, NY in the late afternoon or early evening.

Both Pre-Trial Services and the government have agreed to this request.

Respectfully yours,

Lawrence D. Gerzog
